DIA Inside - Out Art Display

August 1 – November 1

The Detroit Institute of Arts (DIA) is taking art to the streets around Metro Detroit for the sixth year in a row. The DIA will partner with the Huron River Watershed Council, which includes the City of Dexter, to host an Inside-Out exhibition in the five Huron River Trail towns, an initiative to help develop an arts and culture component on the Huron riverfront. The City of Dexter will host three pieces of art, which will be located at Monument Park, Mill Creek Park, and the Dexter District Library.

Dexter Art Gardens

August 17, 2015 – August 17, 2016

<http://Dextermi.gov/>

“Dexter Art Gardens” is an annual sculpture exhibit sponsored by the Dexter Arts, Culture & Heritage Committee. 4 new outdoor sculptures will be displayed for 1 year. The artworks will be installed in high profile locations in historic Dexter, Michigan. These 4 new sculptures will also have complimentary garden displays designed by local garden enthusiasts to enhance the artwork. Online and print brochures will be provided to the public throughout the year to inspire self-guided walking tours of the exhibit. These brochures will also be distributed during the well-known annual festival “Dexter Daze” and the “Paint Dexter Plein Air Festival.”
